

Liza D. Alexanian

Executive Assistant

In this position, Liza is the key support partner to the financial advisory team and executives, providing multiple levels of administrative assistance. She participates in many firm-wide projects to further a strong and positive client experience.

Liza graduated from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and has a bachelor's degree in Management with a concentration in Marketing. Prior to joining Clearwater Capital, Liza was an office manager for 8 years at a logistics firm in the Chicagoland area. In that role, she navigated executive calendars and other levels of support to senior management, ensuring the smooth running of the office on a day-to-day basis. She also spent over 4 years as an administrative clerk at DePaul University, supporting office staff, visitors, and students.

Liza and her husband Armen have 3 grown children and are enjoying being empty nesters. They love bourbon tastings and traveling, sometimes even combining the two. Liza takes pride in her Armenian heritage and is very involved in the Armenian Relief Society, a philanthropic society serving the humanitarian, social, and educational needs of Armenians and non-Armenians alike. She has been on the executive board of the ARS for the past 6 years and has helped raise over $500,000 for humanitarian causes worldwide.
