September 2017

JOHN SLEETING, PARTNER, TO SPEAK AT THE REAL ESTATE FAMILY OFFICE AND PRIVATE WEALTH MANAGEMENT FORUM

Clearwater Capital Partners, LLC is proud to announce that John Sleeting will be a featured speaker at IMN's upcoming Real Estate Family Office and Private Wealth Management Forum. The 2nd annual Forum will take place September 25-26 in Chicago, IL.

John Sleeting was sought out to participate on the panel charged with bringing clarity to the service model choices successful families have. These options extend beyond the Single Family Office (SFO) to include Multi-Family Offices (MFO's) and Private Wealth Management (PWM) firms.

The Forum will be attended by family office members, family office executives, business owners, family foundations, wealth managers, attorneys and others involved in serving the wide array of unique family needs. In the spring of 2017, the sister event in Huntington Beach, CA was attended by over 370 participants, including 180+ family offices - expectations are high for the Chicago event.

John Chapman, CEO Clearwater Capital said, "John Sleeting's role in The Family Office Forum reflects the essence of our firm's technical competency which strives to bring clarity to complex wealth management challenges facing families in the world today."

John will be joined by some of the leading experts in the field as well as representation of prominent names within our countries entrepreneurial heritage. Additional topics to be addressed in the Forum are: Generational Transitions, Direct Investments, Deal Flow, Impact Investing, Woman in Wealth Management, and Tax Planning.
