

Braden C. Maher, AWMA®

Wealth Advisor

Braden Maher is a Wealth Advisor at Clearwater Capital Partners, where he is focused on delivering thoughtful, high-touch financial guidance to individuals and families. He graduated Cum Laude from Miami University in May 2024 with a Bachelor of Science in Finance and a minor in Sports Leadership and Management. During his time at Miami University, Braden was actively involved in Farmer School of Business organizations, participated in intramural sports, and held leadership roles within the Alpha Chapter of Sigma Chi Fraternity.

Braden entered the financial services industry with experience spanning logistics, insurance, and telehealth device monitoring. Across these roles, he developed a strong appreciation for client service and the meaningful impact of trusted guidance on individuals and organizations. He joined Clearwater Capital Partners in the firm's operations department and intentionally rotated through every department to gain a comprehensive understanding of the business. This experience led Braden to spearhead a firm-wide internal process improvement initiative, in which he revamped workflows, restructured systems, and trained team members on software enhancements to improve efficiency and service delivery for both clients and internal teams.

Committed to professional growth, Braden completed the AWMA® (Accredited Wealth Management AdvisorSM) certification program in 2024 and earned his advisory license by passing the FINRA (Financial Industry Regulatory Authority) Series 65 exam. As a Wealth Advisor, he is passionate about providing white-glove service and transparent, life-changing financial guidance. His lifelong love of sports has naturally led him to want to work with professional and collegiate athletes, a group he believes deserves proactive advocacy and education in an industry that often underserves or exploits them.

Braden loves spending time outdoors and being active. This passion began before college when he achieved the rank of Eagle Scout. Braden enjoys attending Chicago sporting events, concerts, playing softball, and spending time on the lake.
